

ON THE GO THEATRE COMPANY

‘Someone’s Sons’ – written by Josie Byrne and Kath Bateman of On The Go Theatre Company, directed by Stephanie Bain. Commissioned by Wigan Council and chosen by the Octagon Theatre Bolton as a showcase of excellent original writing and performing.

The Germans arrive in the Prisoner of War Camp in Leigh during World War One, injured local boys are being cared for at the Military Hospital at Haigh Hall, zeppelin bombs are dropped on Wigan and the girls who are now working in factories whilst the men are away fighting at the front. Family conflict, young romance and the impact of the zeppelin bomb create both humour and moving drama.

On The Go Theatre Company are an over 55's Theatre Group who write and perform their own plays, all of which have an important historical feature. Please contact Judith Whittle on 01204 847797, email whittlejudith@aol.com or Josie Byrne on 01942 831828, email josiebyrne@yahoo.co.uk if you would like more information
